- To ensure curriculum developments, initiatives and courses are suitably explained and tailored to the needs of the pupils
- To ensure that all Schemes of Work are coherent, purposeful and stimulating
- To ensure that lessons are differentiated appropriately for the needs of all pupils
- To work with the DHT, ALNCO and others on appropriate pupil groupings
- To liaise with the School's Examination Officer to ensure that all pupils are entered for appropriate examinations
- To ensure that the department environment and resources are conducive to learning and safe and secure for all pupils, using risk assessments where appropriate

Leading the Department and Others:

- To work closely with members of the department to maintain the highest teaching standards
- To help ensure the health, safety and wellbeing of all colleagues
- To lead purposeful departmental meetings and ensure action points are met
- To attend Subject Leader meetings or other professional meetings as appropriate
- To promote links and co-operation with other departments
- To ensure all curriculum decisions are appropriately communicated to all relevant parties
- To lead the process of Department Monitoring and Self-Evaluation, taking an active role in the schools Quality Assurance protocols, including monitoring the quality of teaching and learning within the department
- To aid the smooth transition between Key Stages
- To contribute to the recruitment of staff
- To manage and monitor the work of support staff and contribute to their Professional Development
- To manage the Department Budget

School Leadership:

- To help set a positive learning environment through championing all forms of success, seeking opportunities to praise and develop individual endeavour and maintaining a positive, creative and inclusive approach to student needs
- To ensure that the school reward and positive behaviour systems are followed appropriately throughout the department and help with supervisory and support roles
- To support school standards in respect of behaviour and uniform
- To be an inspiring and effective role model for pupils and colleagues
- To support extra-curricular involvement and enjoyment of school life

Teaching:

- To undertake an appropriate programme of teaching in accordance with the duties of a standard scale teacher

Personal Welfare:

- To inform your line manager or other official of any issues that may affect your happiness in your role and overall effectiveness within the school, or that of other colleagues or students

Corporate:

- To play a full part in the life of the school community and contribute to the overall ethos, vision and aims of the school in line with 'The Willows Way'
- To participate actively in supporting the principles and practices of equality of opportunity as laid down in the school's Equal Opportunities Policy

- To take reasonable care for the health and safety of yourself and other persons who may be affected by your acts or omissions and to comply with all health and safety legislation
- To be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to the appropriate school officer
- To participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required
- To appreciate and support the role of other professionals
- To attend and participate in relevant meetings as required
- To support the school in meeting its legal requirements for collective worship and on a personal level engage in daily reflection

As a term of your employment you may be required by the Headteacher to undertake such other duties, and/or times of work as may reasonably be required of you, commensurate with your grade or general level of responsibility within the organisation.
